Students are compulsorily required to wear Identity cards on the College campus for attending classes and other activities. In order to enable the college to print the Identity cards, you are required to update the details on your profile, at the link given below:

http://www.chowgules.ac.in/UMS/ums_login.jsp

then go to my profile from right top menu

You would also be required to upload a coloured passport size photograph no greater than 250 kb, with light background, preferably white.

Please keep the photograph ready before updating profile details. Selfies, cropped photographs and poor resolution photographs will be rejected.

Date for collection of Identity cards will be intimated on the college website.
