Observatory Days

Celebration of Goa Liberation Day

- The College celebrated Liberation Day on 19th December, 2023 by hoisting the National Flag at the hands of the chief guest Prof. (Dr.) Sangeeta G. Sankhalkar, Principal. Through her speech in Konkani, highlighted our unique culture and acknowledged the contributions of the freedom fighters who fought for our liberation, how we as Goans should contribute to maintain the culture and unique aspects of our state.

Later Ms. Sarita Naik Tari, Head & Associate Professor, Department of History delivered a speech on 'Goa@62 and the progress, Goa has achieved Post Liberation'. Ms. Alicia Fernandes, student of TYBA, Department of History delivered a speech wherein she spoke about Goa's unique identity and how as young Goans, students should strive to ensure that the Goa which our forefathers have protected with all of their hearts and minds, at times even losing their lives, should be preserved and protected at any cost.

This was followed by a cultural programme. The programme concluded with the NCC song.
