

Programme Learning Outcome (PLOs)

PLO1 : acquire highly developed skills in comprehending and reproducing, both oral and written, in the French language.

PLO2 : express, describe, discuss and explain in both oral and written French, in real life situations..(e.g.: social interactions, banking, marketing, tourism, hospitality, medicine, etc.

PLO3 : apply the skills acquired to demonstrate, illustrate, dramatize and interpret in French in a variety of interactive situations.

PLO4 : sustain conversation at various levels, on any general topic with a speaker of the target language and successfully be able to debate, criticize, differentiate and compare different life situations. (e.g.: debating the education system, public security system, literary movements, status of women in society and comparing and differentiating between the same in India and in France)

PLO5 : collect and compile information on various subjects of the units completed, analyse, synthesize and summarize the same so as to be able to compose, construct and create their own literary works e.g. Short stories, poems, plays, brochures, pamphlets, publicity material, etc. and develop a personal style of expression.

PLO6 : work either individually or in small groups, use various multimedia tools to achieve the completion of a task, display team spirit: cooperation, coordination and willingness to work and acquire life skills and soft necessary to launch oneself into a globalised scenario.