

10 hrs. Devnagari Typing Course:

Konkani is a vernacular language. It is written in devnagari script. Our Department is well equipped with latest technology. We are using latest Computer Tools, PPTs, Google Classroom, Practices of online submission of Assignments etc. But our observation is, the students who are admitted for FYBA in the Department finds difficulties in completing their routine Academic work in devnagari script. So while understanding the need in the same area, the Department organizes a special Course of 10 hours in the first week of July every year.

The students opting Konkani subjects (Major / Minor) were expertised in Devnagari typing skills which enhance their study in the subject.

06 Hrs. Workshop on ‘Konkani Shuddhalekhan’:

The Department of Konkani has students from different Academic background. Some are also from Science and Commerce background. These students face difficulties in writing Konkani. Even Arts Stream Students are facing such problems. To resolve such academic issue, we conduct 06 hours special Workshop on Konkani ‘Shuddhalekhan’ every year in the month of June. This motivates the students to correct themselves at the initial stages.

On the successful completion of the said workshop, students will be able to achieve basic skills to write pure Konkani. This skill helps them to work as Teachers, Editors, News Readers, Radio and TV Anchors, Proof Readers, Critiques etc. They can also specialize themselves further in fields related to Konkani Language & Literature. They can also join the field of Creative Writing and Research.
