NATIONAL SEMINAR ON “BEST PRACTICES IN INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION”, HELD ON 20th DECEMBER 2018 AT PARVATIBAI CHOWGULE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE.

INTRODUCTION

A National Seminar on “Best Practices in the Institutions of Higher Education” was conducted by the Parvatibai Chowgule College of Arts and Science, at its campus, on 20 December 2018.

Various colleges from Goa as well as outside Goa participated in the Seminar.

Dr Nandkumar Sawant, Principal, extended a warm welcome to all the participants and requested them to share the best practices that are being followed by them.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Seminar was to give presentations, discuss and share the best practices by each college.

SYNOPSIS

The Seminar began with the Gogate Jogalekar College, Ratnagiri, Maharashtra. Dr. S.C. Thakur Desai, IQAC co-ordinator and Dr. A.Y. Pitre presented and spoke of their best practice that was “Theatre for development” wherein they included cultural activities like street plays, dramas, etc. They also shared their criteria wise best practice for NAAC evaluation.

The second college was Sophia Girls College, Ajmer, Rajasthan. The Principal, Dr. Sister Pearl, shared her best practice in their college. They focused on “environmental sustainability”. They have created a green aesthetic campus and generate their own electricity with the help of solar panels installed by them recently. They also, have Plant me “drive to encourage planting more trees and also, have their own bio-gas plant, add-on courses in Vermiculture and Bonsai and rain water harvesting.

The next presentation was made by Mr. Andrew Barreto from Parvatibai Chowgule College. His presentation was on “teaching-learning and evaluation”. The best practices followed in teaching-learning and evaluation in Chowgule College are POGIL, PBL, CLS, constructive learning, inquiry and research-based learning. He also highlighted the other best practices followed in the college like the student-teacher support, the student support services with writing centre and various other departments in it to cater to the needs of the students, having Academic writing and Research writing courses, CCAPS, CTL, encourage learning from google class room, ICT lab.

After each presentation, the attendees were given time to discuss and ask their queries.

After a short tea break, the Seminar was continued by Dr. Monica Kannan from Sophia College, Ajmer, Rajasthan. She discussed on the other notable best practices followed in their college. She spoke on research promotion, local linkages and their place in International Peer Reviewed Journal. The college also encourage their young students to the world of entrepreneurship. The college students have their own online store (start-up OASIS) for selling their hand made products.

The next presentation was made by Dr. Meenakshi Bawa, IQAC co-ordinator and Mr. Dattaprasad Shirgurkar which highlighted their best practice, "Go Green Initiative". They also have vermi-composting unit, roof top rain water harvesting, dry waste management and tree plantation drive among their best practices.

The next presentation was made by Shikshanmaharshi Dr. Bapuji Salunkhe Vidyalaya, Miraj, Sangli, Maharashtra. He spoke on "Green College Clean College", and "Plastic Free Campus" which were the best practices following by them.

The next presentation was by Dr. Elizabeth Henriques with Ms. Vinita V Kandolkar from the Govt College, Borda. Provision for internship programmes for the students is their best practice in the college.

The next presentation was made by Dr. Arvind M Haldarkar from Shree Mallikarjun College of Arts and Commerce, Canacona. He spoke of "Civic sensed Movement with two Clubs in it as their best practice. They also have a community wellness programme with an NGO named "Sangat".

The next presentation was given by Dr. D. Y. Jamadar from Baba Nayak Mahavidyalaya, Sangli, Maharashtra spoke of providing safety measures for the students by the college and how they have a tie up with 108 service. This is the best practice being following in their college.

To conclude, Dr. Nandkumar Sawant, Principal of Parvatibai Chowgule College, spoke on the "Global outlook of the college" and how teaching-learning method has been revised by the college to cater to the needs of the global students. He also spoke of the foreign faculty on campus and the students exchange programmes, the MoUs the college has recently signed with the Universities, National and International.

Lastly the dais was kept open for the attendees to share their experiences.

OUTCOME

The participants and attendees appreciated the Seminar which could share knowledge and generate awareness among them. Further, such practices which were not followed by the Institutions till now could be implemented for betterment. During the Seminar, Dr. Nandkumar Sawant, Principal, Parvatibai Chowgule College, suggested that urban-rural exchange programmes could be initiated.

Overall the Seminar was very enlightening and motivational.

Logistics Support was provided by Ms. Bhavana Sawardekar along with student volunteers. Photography by tiger studio and Refreshments and lunch ordered from College Canteen. Report prepared by Ms. Anila K.P.
