Flyer of 2nd Orientation Program held on 20.06.2022 online

Session 1: Dr. Shaila R. Ghanti Principal and Convener IIC presented on the topic “Innovation & Entrepreneurship Ecosystem” in the college. She began the approach of thought process and thinking that need shift from traditional economic thinking to new thinking. She deliberated on the necessity of having NISP policy at the institute involving stake holders establishing and building of I & E ecosystem streamlining existing I & E ecosystem and strengthening of current I & e ecosystem.

She mentioned the objective of tree/policy logistic startup ecosystem development at institutional level. During discussion it is revealed that two mentor institutes have not yet formulated NISP policy for their institute.

Dr. Ghanti suggested identifying problems and solving them by various solutions, activities and initiatives to be planned and organized to integrate experiential learning. Also suggested to come up with activities, awareness programme in the beginning of the academic year. Help student innovators extend facilities and organize sessions with alumina for student, startup student cell under IIC cell, recognize ideas and promote them. Help student to register their startup with UDYOG AADHAR.

Dr. Ghanti further said that design thinking process and making product development, entrepreneurship as a creative activity , enhance presentation skills and create confidence.

Session 2: Best Practices in HEIs by Dr. Uma Masur, co-convener IIC. Dr. Masur linked the topic of best practices with the necessity of NISP policy and involvement of management, principal, staff, student and other stakeholders. She presented YOUNG INNOVATORS FEST 2021 as the example of best practice to motivate student to come with startups.

The YOUNG INNOVATORS FEST 2021, Goa @ 60, # Vocal For Locals, held on 18th December 2021. The objective of the program was to provide a plat form for the students to test / showcase / exhibit their entrepreneurship ideas on campus. The fest saw the participation of 28 student entrepreneurs' two faculty entrepreneurs and two NGOs. Team BRENDEMA, with the help of Crafters club and Arts club registered with the Office of Student Affairs. It was well received by college, community and all clubs. The event was conceptualized by Mr. Malcolm Afonso, Assistant Professor.

At the end Dr. Masur discussed challenges like research based innovations, more awards and streamlining the process as per the NISP policy.

Session 3: Q & A. There had been a very fruitful discussion and sharing of experiences of mentee institutes. Discussion held on How to bring up the awareness among the student? It is also though that encourage student even if there are very few student participation. With the help of faculty bring up innovation to startup.

Mr. Malcolm Afonso explained about the BRENDEMA an initiate by student of computer science who have started some kind of startups, they took up Google form based inventory, followed by interviews and shortlisting and they further organized events like YOUNG INNOVATORS FEST 2021. The Team Brendema, students & clubs had firsthand experience and chance to test their ideas in campus as student expressed their interest in doing it a big way.

At the end Mr. Malcolm Afonso proposed Vote of thanks. The session end at 11.30am.

The session began with introduction session by the member of IIC Trupti Dessai followed by the introducing the members of IIC.

Off. Principal/ Convener IIC Dr. Shaila R. Ghanti presented on the topic "Innovation & Entrepreneurship Ecosystem" in the college. She began with explanation how the course structure of the college has been ideal to undertake entrepreneurial activities and these initiatives have become way of life. She indicated the process how the students can be involved in the process like registration and forming the council. She also mentioned about various activities, seminars, workshops and MOU's with college which has helped the students to motivate them to generate the innovative ideas. She spoke about constant involvement of faculty in the mentoring session with the students. She highlighted the achievements and outcomes of the college's IIC like faculty start up "Mushroom connect", Android app for Autistic Children and kapsloc.in –a Software Development Cell by the students. The college also has its own start up "Brandema" which helps other students start ups in marketing strategies. The speaker also requested to formulate NISP POLICY according their college environment in aligning the same with policy given by MHRD.

The next speaker, Dr. Kanchana elaborated on various Key Functionaries of IIC that members of IIC should follow and also spoke about various designations that need to be assigned for the smooth functioning of the cell like president, convener, expert representative, student representative etc.

Speaker D. Prabhakaran shared Best Practices followed by the institute like timely uploading of the reports on ARIIA, following the activities listed by MHRD's IIC which can help to get good score and ratings. Various queries by mentee institutes were clarified by the members of the IIC.

lastly, Q & A and the Vote of Thank was given by DR.Uma Masur, (Co-Convener). The session ended at 400pm.
