The objectives and description of the activity	The training programme was conducted from January 11-13, 2023. Participants included academics, officials from government departments, panchayats, jailers, and other public servants. Its objectives were to understand the problems women face in society, as well as create awareness on various issues pertaining to gender so as to help build a more gender-neutral society. Day 1 After introductions, the first day of the programme saw various sessions on varied topics. We started off with a session on understanding more about the concept of gender, its definition, and why gender sensitization is the need of the hour. We also had a session to discuss the position of women in society and how we can be more aware of issues that may arise as a result of gender insensitivity. Post lunch, we had a session that apprised us of the various legal safeguards put in place for women in family and property laws. We were also provided with valuable information about how to go about with filing complaints and taking action against situations that may be motivated by gender insensitivity and misogyny. We were also made aware of the pertinent organisations working in the field of gender awareness, and where their respective locations in Goa are, as well as who to approach and contact when help in this regard is needed. Day 2 The second day of the programme focussed on sessions that talked about the role of women at the grassroot level of local government, that is, the Panchayat. We were apprised of the different schemes for women at this level, as well as how women as local leaders in the panchayat were making inroads into predominantly male bastions of development, thereby epitomising empowerment and gender equality in local government. The session post lunch provided us with some useful tools on changing our attitudes and in turn our behaviour with regard to interacting with gender sensitivity. The focus was to use positive thinking and action in this regard and improve interpersonal relations at the individual and community level. Day 3 The third and final day of the programme had sessions on eating and nutritional habits and challenges for women, as well as working men. We were able to have a better idea on various health issues and how important food and exercise are equally, and gender wise. We also had sessions on the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goal number 5, that is, gender equality, and how it was being implemented in Goa through the various schemes. We were also made aware of how to best utilise these schemes for so that those who really needed them could benefit to the maximum. The programme ended with suggestions, feedback and distribution of certificates.

Feedback	The programme was professionally organised and most of the sessions very informative. There were certain sessions that could use more nurturing for future applications, particularly with regard to understanding the concepts of gender and how to be more aware of the subtle ways casual sexism and misogyny continue to exist and dictate how we interact with each other. All in all, it was a learning experience, especially with the practical aspects of gender in day to day society.

The objectives and description of the activity	The training programme was conducted from September 13-15, 2022. Participants included academics, officials from government departments, panchayats, and other public servants. Its objectives were to understand the legal provisions available to the two vulnerable groups, understand how the various local and national institutions, government and non-government work, towards making those provisions a reality, as well as get an idea of different aspects concerning these groups, such as health, safety, wealth, etc. The first day of the programme saw various sessions on varied topics. We started off with a session on how to improve our attitudes and change our behaviours to better understand the difficulties face by these individuals. We also got to know more about the various legal provisions for the protection and welfare of senior citizens. We also had a session on understanding the role of the state commission for PWDs, and another session on their rights. All were eye-openers helping us better understand the current situation and issues faced by these communities, especially in Goa. The second day of the programme focussed on sessions that talked about the role of the Provedoria, one of the oldest Asian welfare institutions, in its present-day avatar helping senior citizens in Goa. We also had an overview on the schemes and benefits concerning senior citizens and PWDs, as well as a session on initiatives for them. We ended the day working in groups coming up with suggestions that could be implemented to help make more of the provisions a reality. The third and final day of the programme had sessions on medical assistance to senior citizens and PWDs, the role of Goa police towards welfare of these groups, as well as talks by resource persons from organisations like Disability Rights Association of Goa (DRAG) and Helpage India (Goa). We also had an impromptu session by a resource person from Goa Association for the Deaf. The programme ended with groups presenting their suggestions, feedback and distribution of certificates.

Report on Faculty Enrichment Internship Program at IIT-Goa.

Introduction:

I completed faculty enrichment internship program at IIT-Goa campus from 9th January to 28th April 2023. The program was an incredible opportunity for me to gain practical experience, enhance my teaching skills and learn about the teaching practices followed in the institution. In this report, I will provide a summary of my internship experience, including my job responsibilities, the skills and knowledge I gained during the internship program.

Job Responsibilities:

During my internship period, I was assigned as a Teaching Assistant for Computer Networks Course[CS212]. I also had the opportunity to observe classroom instruction and attend other courses such as Algorithm Design and Compiler Design. The tasks and responsibilities as a Teaching Assistant included grading for assignments, tests, quizzes and practical exams for the course and provide feedback to students. I was also given an opportunity to collaborate with other Research Scholars and Teaching Assistants which allowed me to gain a better understanding of teaching and evaluation practices followed in the institution. The detailed report of week wise activities is included in this report.

Skills and Knowledge Gained:

Throughout my internship, I gained valuable skills and knowledge that I believe will be useful in my future career. Some of the skills and knowledge I gained include:

1. Improved Instructional skills and techniques by observing experienced teachers in my subject area and noting their instructional strategies and techniques by watching how they interact with students, design lesson plans, and provide feedback.

2. Use of technology tools to enhance teaching, such as online quizzes and interactive learning tools and Incorporating real-world examples and applications into lesson plans to help students understand how the material relates.

3. Encouraging students to discuss the material and work collaboratively in groups and providing students with timely and constructive feedback on their assignments and tests.

4. Attended training sessions, workshops and Presentations that exposed me to different research methods and designs used by scholars in the field.

5. Gained greater understanding of student diversity and learning styles.

Weekly Report :

Sr. No.	Details of the work
Note :	Attended three lectures each per week in the following courses : 1. CS212 - Computer Networks Theory and Labs 2. CS222 - Algorithm Design 3. CS311 - Compiler Design

Interacted with various faculty members from the School of Mathematics and Computer Science, IIT Goa to understand the Undergraduate Course Curriculum and its course structure. 2. Attended Lectures in various courses such as Machine Learning, Algorithm Design, Computer Networks and Coding Theory. 3. Conducted Quiz of CS222 Algorithm Design course.
Week 2	1. Assigned as a Teaching Assistant for Computer Network [CS212] course. 2. Graded Lab Assignment on Networking Tools. 3. Graded Quiz on Basics of Computer Networks.
Week 3	1. Implemented Lab Assignment on Sockets. 2. Graded Quiz on Performance of Networks
Week 4	Graded Lab Assignment on Sockets.

Sr. No.	Details of the work
Week 5	1. Implemented Lab Assignment on Principles of Reliable Data Transfer 2. Attended Pedagogy Seminar Talk by Dr. Aaloka Kanhere titled History in a mathematics classroom. 3. Attended Seminar talk on Neural Interval Abstraction.
Week 6	Graded Lab Assignment on Principles of Reliable Data Transfer.
Week 7	1. Graded Quiz on Reliable Data Transfer 2. Prepared answer key for Mid Semester examination for Computer Network [CS212] course. 3. Evaluated answers sheets for Mid Semester examination for Computer Network [CS212] course.
Week 8	Implemented Lab Assignment on Sliding Window Protocols
Week 9	Graded Lab Assignment on Sliding Window Protocols.
Week 10	Participated in a Paper Discussion on Paper "The Wisdom of practice : Lessons learned from the study of Highly Effective Tutors".
Week 11	Attended Students Presentations in Computer Network [CS212] course.
Week 12	Attended Students Presentations in Computer Network [CS212] course. Implemented Lab Assignment on HTTP, Web and DNS
Week 13	Graded Lab Assignment on HTTP, Web and DNS.
Week 14	Prepared answer key for Semester end examination for Computer Network [CS212] course.
Week 15	Evaluated answers sheets for Semester end examination for Computer Network [CS212] course.

Sr. No.	Details of the work
Week 16	1. Discussed solutions and answered queries of the students with respect to the answers of semester end examinations. 2. Verification of marks for all the evaluation conducted by me. 3. Exit meeting with all the faculty members of the School of Mathematics and Computer Science, IIT Goa to discuss the overall experience and feedback of the FEIP.

Overall Experience:

My internship experience at IIT-Goa was extremely positive. I was able to work with a talented team of faculty and staff and enhance my teaching skills. I also had the opportunity to participate in various professional development activities, which helped me grow both personally and professionally.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, my internship program at IIT-Goa was an excellent opportunity for me to gain practical experience and enhance my teaching skills. I am grateful for the experience and the knowledge and skills I gained during my time there.

Objective:	Faculty Enrichment Internship Program, intends to provide opportunities to faculty from Goa to develop effective teaching pedagogies, enhance and build research collaborations, and replicate this culture in HEIs in Goa.
Summary of the proceedings	I was deputed for Faculty Enrichment Internship Programme(FEIP) at IIT GOA on 22nd August 2022 till 23rd December 2022. Following are the two courses attended during this period: Artificial Intelligence(AI) as the main course, and probability and Statistics (a prerequisite paper for AI). During this internship period I have also attended tutorial on "MOSS Plagerism checker". The aim of this tutorial to demonstrate and teach usage of MOSS Plagerism checker on students assignments The following are the Duties assigned to me by the faculty mentor: • Attending theory lectures. • Watching pre-recorded lecture videos by Dr. Divya Padmanabhan and Berkely University Professors. • Engaging Practicals. • Learning and implementing lab assignments (projects) before conducting an evaluation. • Preparing rubrics for the lab/theory assignments. • Preparing answer keys for theory assignments. • Evaluation of theory Assignments. • Evaluation of practical Assignments.

	• Conducting vivas. • Emailing marks to the students. • Plagiarism check. • Solving difficulties/answering queries during lab hours.

Title:	FDP WORKSHOP ON TEACHING LEARNING AND EVELUATION TECHNIQUES
Date and year:	01st December 2022 (Thursday)
Venue:	AV Room And Flipped Classroom
Resource person/s:	Prof. Nandkumar Sawant, Prof Nandini Vaz Fernandes, Mr. Andrew Barretto
Organizing Committee	Teaching Learning Educational Technology Cell (TLETC) And Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)
No. of Participants:	19
Objective:	To Understand and Apply Bloom's Taxonomy in Teaching – Learning and Evaluation.
Summary of the proceedings:	Teaching learning Educational technology Cell (TLETC) and Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Parvatibai Chowgule College of Arts and Science (Autonomous) organized a 2 - day Faculty Development Program for all the new faculties of the institute. Eminent faculties in the field, Prof Dr. Nandakumar Sawant, Prof. Dr. Nandini Vaz Fernandes and Mr. Andrew Barretto were invited as resource persons for the workshop. The workshop was inaugurated by the convener of Teaching Learning Educational Technology Cell (TLETC) Dr. Sameena Falleiro. Vice Principal addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of implementing different modes of teaching and evaluation for the benefits of the students. Two day workshop was divided in multiple sessions to facilitate better understanding of different modes of teaching and evaluation with hands on training. The goal of this FDP is to enhance the skills of teachers while encouraging faculty to adopt digital pedagogic approaches to integrate teaching-learning and evaluation with the latest digital tools/techniques, which are useful in today's education. Workshop was divided into following sessions: • Quality Higher Education & Overview of Bloom's Taxonomy • Digital Blooms • Teaching Learning methods

Parvatibai Chowgule College of Arts & Science (Autonomous) MARGAO GOA

- TL Method 1 - Case Study
- TL Method 2 - Problem Based Learning
- TL Method 3 - Blended Learning
- Hands-on-Activities

The workshop focused on familiarizing the participants with Booms taxonomy and importance of implementing it to improve the quality of higher education in the country. Resource person explained the Blooms taxonomy and how different levels in blooms taxonomy cater to identifying different areas of students' knowledge. Session on Digital blooms familiarized the participants on different digital platforms that can be used to implement blooms taxonomy. The resource person familiarized the participants of different tools and web resources which can be utilized by the faculties.

Session on Teaching Learning methods acquainted the participants with the different modes of teaching learning and evaluation and how they help different students in understanding the concepts in a better way. Different teaching learning methods were also deliberated. Next sessions were focused on understanding the three teaching learning methods which are Problem based learning, case study and Blended learning. The first day of the workshop came to an end with hands on training of the three teaching methods.
