7.1.7-Additional Information:

“Everyone at the college particularly works towards encouraging differently abled persons (Divyangjan) integration into society and has no boundaries that are mental or physical. Free and easy to use open source graphic design software is offered to every student who has some unique learning capabilities and cannot afford/design this for themselves. Each campus is fitted with ramps and handrails for increased movement ease, and we also sell and lend Divyangjan wheelchairs, Divyangjan vehicles and equipment to students and staff to make sure that everybody is properly catered for. We seek to build a self-propelling and affirming environment that the campus is.”

Facilities for Divyangan students during the Examination:

The college examination cell is committed to ensure maximum possible support to the especially abled students. The following provisions are given to the students with diverse needs if required by them.

- 1) Extended Examination time - students are granted extra time to complete their paper so as to release the pressure of time.
- 2) Separate Examination block- Divyang students are placed in different blocks either for easy accessibility or to reduce distractions thereby creating a favourable environment.
- 3) Question papers are printed in an alternative formats like larger font such that the visually challenged students can read and understand the content decently well.
- 4) Making provision for a writer in genuine cases such that they can comfortably get their concept and knowledge penned down without the time bound stress.
- 5) Providing assistance from the support staff, invigilator etc so as to respond to their concerns encountered during the course of examination.
