Resource person/s:	College Counsellors - Ms. Prianka Sardinha and Ms. Pooja Parab
Venue:	Google Meet link : https://meet.google.com/vbg-srqw-kay?hs=122&authuser=1
Date and year:	Friday, 9 th April 2021
No. of Participants:	21 Participants (Faculty)
Organising Committee:	The Mentoring Committee
Organised for :	Teaching Faculty
Objective:	The aim of this webinar was to sensitize faculty about the types of issues faced by our students and also to provide a comparative analysis of cases handled prior to pandemic, during lockdown and sincethe pandemic.

Summary of the proceedings	The mentoring committee in collaboration with the college counsellors organized a talk on “Personal Counseling – An Overview of Academic Years 2019-2021” for the Teaching Faculty on Friday, 9th April 2021 at 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. This initiative was taken in order to create an awareness and sensitize faculties about the various types of cases handled by the college counsellors in campus. This talk was of utmost importance as it was necessary for the faculty also to get an insight as to what difficulties and issues students are facing in their day to day life which at times does hamper their academic performance. Only once faculty is made aware about such issues they are in a position to better understand students. Doing so will also help bridge the gap and bring about a positive change in campus. Dr. Sobita Kirtani, Convenor, Mentoring Committee began the session at 2:40 p.m. by welcoming the speakers and participants. Followed by Ms. Prianka Sardinha, college counselor, shedding light on the objective, stages and importance of counseling so that faculty got a clear understanding of the counseling process. Similarly, Ms. Pooja Parab, college counselor, spoke about the various cases handled by the counselors during the Academic years 2019-2021. Simultaneously, a comparative analysis of the various cases handled prior to pandemic, during lockdown and since the pandemic was displayed and explained to the participants with the help of pie charts. Faculties were also briefed about the types of cases listed under Personal, Academic and Family Issues. Ms. Prianka Sardinha also shared a few tips which would be beneficial to the faculty in situations wherein they might notice changes in a student behavior or encounter a low performing / uninvolved student. The speaker ended her presentation by giving a message through a quote stating “The world needs more kindness and smiling faces. If you can make this happen, do it! Don't hesitate! As this can make a huge difference in someone else's life.” After which the session was open for questions. This was a very interactive time as many faculty asked the counselors various questions regarding the cases handled and the counselors addressed each individual question at a time. The webinar concluded by a Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. Sobita Kirtani, Convenor, Mentoring Committee. The talk was attended by a total of 21 faculties.
